

Search for: in All Editions

The Pirateer
Tottenville High School
Staten Island, NY
Issue Date: 10/06/2005
Issue: October 2005
Last Update: 10/17/2005
Visit School Website

Front Page | News | Features | Sports | Opinions | Entertainment | Print This Page | Email

Today's Date:
October 17, 2005
Headlines:

News

The Protest Mom Leads Another Protest In The Nation's Capitol more...

Autumn Blaze more...

Hurricane Katrina Relief Efforts more...

Features

Ferrer hurt by blunders more...

College Deadlines more...

Bloomberg ripped for skipping Harlem Debate more...

EXPLORING For Success more...

New Ancient Egyptian Exhibit Opens At Metropolitan Museum of Art more...

ONLINE EXCLUSIVE

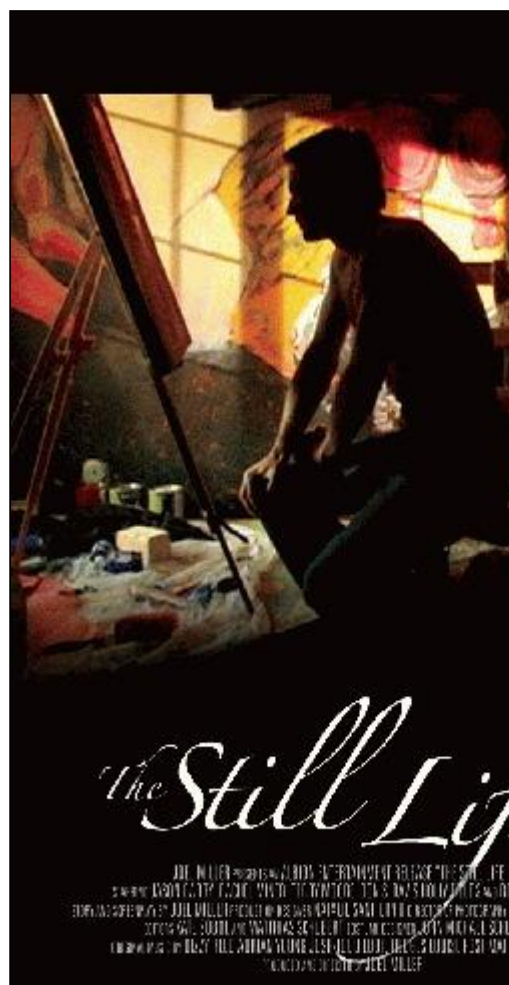

The Release of THE STILL LIFE

By Veena Bissram

In September 2005 Albion Entertainment released it's film, The Still Life, by first-time director Joel Miller. The film focuses on the struggles of an artist to control his own destiny as others try to lead him in another direction.

The Still Life presents an artist, Julian Lamont (Jason Barry of Titanic), as an alcoholic who, on his journey to success, faces the responsibility of making decisions on the artist he will become. "The main idea is that we are all here to leave a mark on society and our future," says Joel Miller, "and we have to make choices about those marks." As for Julian, he makes the right choice in his decision to be creative and to make his statement in life.

Joel Miller had three occupations: a carpenter, lighting technician and a stage manager. He also worked in a recording studio and toured with bands such as Guns 'N Roses, Stone Temple Pilots and The Cranberries. Miller's job experiences lead him to have a greater appreciation for the arts and on the road to becoming a director. Another passion of his is writing. When asked about his motivations for The Still Life, Miller said "A director helps tell a story,

How to Deal When You
Mess Up

more...

TOTTENVILLE'S HALLS
ARE BUSTLING AGAIN!

more...

Sports

TOTTENVILLE
BASKETBALL
CONTROVERSY

more...

Opinions

FAVORITE REALITY
SHOWS

more...

A RADIO STATION
WHICH PLAYS
WHATEVER IT WANTS??

more...

Entertainment

Flightplan

more...

Lord Of War

more...

The Release of THE STILL LIFE

more...

HALL-OF-FAME
REVIEW: WHAT'S GOING ON, Marvin Gaye

more...

Events

General Events

LIKE WHAT YOU
SEE??? ANY T.H.S.

STUDENT CAN BECOME A PIRATEER

WRITER -- NO
EXPERIENCE NEEDED!

SIMPLY E-MAIL
PIRATEERNEWS@GMAIL.COM

WITH YOUR NAME!

9/28/2005

creates it.”

While The Still Life's story is enticing and original, another reason to go see it The cast includes: Terry Moore from Welcome Back Little Sheba, Rachael Mir Angel Boris from General Hospital, Johnathan Davis (the lead singer of Korn), (Guns N Roses), and Doug Carrion (The Descendants).

While Julian Lamont is played as an artist, this movie is not geared to only arti musicians. The idea is something that everyone can relate to. According to Mi people will relate to The Still Life because “it will make a lot of people think ab what we are supposed to become.” Miller feels that “Artists’ are people too, ar they love their fan base (usually), it’s a shame when the media can’t respect th

The Still Life is anticipated to be a huge success. Miller has put everything he movie, and hopes for it to win at many festivals. This movie is not only a story. each individual, their hardships in life and the choices they must make on their Julian make the right decisions on his own, or will he be steered in the wrong others? Be sure to find out by seeing this movie today!

Visit the film's official site at www.thestilllifemovie.com.

Go To Calendar

All School Newspaper contents are copyrighted by school and protected by copyright laws. Participating Schools provide all content provided in issues and agree to publication of content. Please Read our Privacy Policy. Click Here for more information on getting your school's Newspaper online!

